

Compliance of Dhanbad Action Plan for Bee-Hive coke Oven Plants

S.No.	Action Point	Action plans for stake holders	Date of completion	Status of Compliance (With Details)
1	The ambient air of the premises of TPPs remains dusty due to pliance of uncovered trucks and those too on kutcha haul roads and on ash dumps and due to uncovered processing of ash. The chimneys of boilers too emit dust.	(a) The covering of loaded transported vehicle will be compulsory. All transport / haul roads will be made pucca	31.03.2012 (ST)
		(b) New haul roads will be taken in use after making in pucca from	31.03.2012 (ST)
		(c) The space of processing of coal or coke will be kept covered.	30.06.2011 (ST)
		(d) All plants will be modified to ensure emission of particulate matter to below 150 micro gm per cubic meter	30.03.2011 (ST)
2	Surface run off, and quench water find way to down stream.	(a) The rain water of the premises shall be harvested	31.06.2011 (ST)
		(b) The other wastewater shall be in close circuit.	30.06.2011 (ST)
3	Due to discharge of emission and wastewater, the bio diversity of plant species, terrestrial animals and aquatic organism have adversely been affected	The plantation of saplings for creation of tree and forest cover of local species	31.07.2011 (ST)

Compliance of Dhanbad Action Plan for Bee-Hive coke Oven Plants

S.No.	Action Point	Action plans for stake holders	Date of completion	Status of Compliance (With Details)
4	Action for maintenance and continuity of the condition of good and aesthetic environment and compliance of legal provisions	(a) Monitoring of ambient air-reporting every quarter, effluent - reporting every quarter, downstream surface water -reporting every year Ground water - reporting every every year, disposal of hazardous wastes-reporting every six months, and tree plantation- reporting every year Assurance	30 06 2011 (ST)
		(b) Introduction of GIS/GPS for continuous recording.	30 09.2011 (ST)
		(c) Every month broadcasting through TV an radio Assurance	30 09.2011 (ST)	